

The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), Beirut delegation, is recruiting an Emergency Room Nurse

ICRC

The ER Nurse will work in the ICRC team and in close collaboration with the PRCS-L hospital staff in ER, in five hospitals runs by the Palestinian Red Crescent Society –Lebanon and in Human Call Hospital in Ein El Helwi camp.

Responsibilities and tasks, under the supervision of the medical coordinator

- Work with local hospital staff in order to improve the organization staff & organize the ER in each of the five PRCS hospitals (and Human call hospital) and their capacity in dealing with emergencies;
- Update the clinical knowledge of the nurses working in ER in nursing management of medical and surgical emergencies;
- Improve the internal communication among the staff working in ER (Doctors and Nurses) and other hospital departments and the Hospital management, liaising with the Health coordinator for matters that need coordination with the PRCS HQ in Beirut;

Minimum qualifications and experience:

- Valid nursing diploma
- 2 years experience
- Good spoken and written English

Main skills required for the post

- Experienced in dealing with nursing management of medical and surgical emergencies;
- Motivation to support the five PRCS hospitals staff in improving efficiency in the ER ;
- Flexible, diplomatic and able to work independently, as well as part of a team;
- Innovative and creative in stimulating and maintaining the motivation of PRCS staff;
- Good coordination and communication skills;
- Ability to adapt to the Palestinian culture, security constraints and living restrictions, when imposed.

Start of work: January 2010
Working base: five PRCS Hospitals and Human call hospital and Beirut
Deadline to apply: 20.11.2009

Interested candidates are requested to send, in a closed envelope, their complete file (CV, motivation letter and copies of certificates) to the following address:

International Committee of the Red Cross
Mansour Bldg
Sadat Street, Hamra, Beirut

Or by email: beyrouth.bey@icrc.org

Attention: Administrative Coordinator